

Fill in the Blank – What is MS?

Multiple Sclerosis is a _____ that affects the central nervous system. The _____ sends messages through the _____. These messages control what the body does. All of your _____ are covered with a special protective coating called _____. Myelin makes sure that the nerve is protected and the _____ get through quickly. Sometimes there are _____ on certain parts of the brain and spinal cord. These scars prevent the _____ from getting to the body parts. For example, people may have trouble moving their _____ and their _____.

But people with _____ enjoy doing the same things as you and I. By raising money, we can all help people with _____ by helping to buy _____ and _____ and by helping doctors find a _____.

brain

disabilities

nerves

scars

arms

messages

spinal cord

legs

myelin

wheelchairs

multiple sclerosis

messages

disease

cure

ramps