

BIOGRAPHY

Mark Strahl

Name: Mark Strahl

Party: Conservative

Role: Chief Opposition Whip

Riding: Chilliwack–Hope

Language: English

Committees:

- Member of the Board of Internal Economy

Bio:

- Mark Strahl has not sponsored any bills or private Members' motions in the current session
- In 2011, he ran as a candidate in the riding of Chilliwack--Fraser Canyon and was elected to the House of Commons
- Mark served as the Shadow Minister for Fisheries and Oceans, and later as Shadow Minister for Natural Resources
- Following Andrew Scheer's election as the Leader of Canada's Conservatives, he appointed Mark to the position of Chief Opposition Whip
- Mark has placed a priority on raising issues surrounding mental health, including ending the stigma associated with mental health diseases
- Mark is committed to working with First Nations leaders in our community to move our relationships forward in a spirit of true reconciliation
- He is an Honorary Member of the Rotary Club of Chilliwack
- Mark is a member of the following organizations:
 - Royal Canadian Legion Vedder Branch 280
 - Hope and District Chamber of Commerce
 - Chilliwack Chamber of Commerce
 - Chilliwack Healthier Community group
 - Chilliwack Housing First Task Team