

BIOGRAPHIES

Bryan May

Name: Bryan May

Party: Liberal

Role:

Riding: Cambridge

Language: English

MS Connections

- Met with Benjamin Davis and Rahil Dattu on December 13, 2016
- Met with David Arbuthnot and Lisa McCoy on May 1, 2017

Committees:

- Chair, Standing Committee on Human Resources, Skills and Social Development and the Status of Persons with Disabilities
- Chair, Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure of the Standing Committee on Human Resources, Skills and Social Development and the Status of Persons with Disabilities
- Member, Subcommittee on Communications Activities in Relation to Committees
- Member, Liaison Committee

Bio:

- Bryan May has sponsored Bill(s):
  - C-240 An Act to amend the Income Tax Act (tax credit — first aid)
- Bryan May has not sponsored any private Members' motions in the current session
- Bryan May was sworn-in as Member of Parliament in November 2015
- Sits on five parliamentary associations and groups, and multiple issue-based and regional caucuses
- Deeply entrenched in community activism, Bryan has a long track record of facilitating positive development with those who need it most. It is this unwavering dedication to helping others which motivates Bryan, making him a strong representative for the riding of Cambridge.
- His senior management experience spans roles with non-profit organizations including the YMCA, the Boys and Girls Club of Canada, and the University of Waterloo. Bryan served on the committee for the Oxford Active Living/Youth Action Plan, was a member of the Y Service Club, and was the Executive Treasurer of the Social Planning Council of Cambridge and North

BIOGRAPHIES

Dumfries— an organization focused on collecting, analyzing, and openly sharing data to strengthen community with the goal of eliminating poverty.

- Bryan’s volunteerism in Cambridge includes coaching baseball as well as being a long-time member of numerous charitable organizations. Bryan earned his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Waterloo and lives in Cambridge with his wife Kristin and two children.