

BIOGRAPHY

Raymonde Saint-Germain

Name: Raymonde Saint-Germain

Political Affiliation: Non-affiliated

Role: Deputy Facilitator

Designation: De la Vallière

Committees:

- Member, Foreign Affairs and International Trade
- Member, Internal Economy, Budgets and Administration
- Member, Subcommittee on Diversity

Bio:

- She served in several senior multidisciplinary positions in the Government of Quebec
 - Québec Ombudsperson
 - Deputy Minister of Government Services
 - Deputy Minister of Relations with Citizens and Immigration
 - Assistant Deputy Minister of International Relations
 - Quebec Official Publisher
- She has chaired and been a member of many governance committees, boards of directors, and audit committees in the public sector and in community and philanthropic organizations
- Senator Saint-Germain serviced on many boards/associations:
 - Chair of the Association internationale des ombudsmans et médiateurs de la francophonie
 - Vice-chair of the Greater Quebec Community Foundation
 - Chair of the Foundation's audit committee
 - Collaborator to Laval University's Research Chair on Democracy and Parliamentary Institutions
 - Trainer for the Ombuds professional development programs at York University's Osgoode Hall Law School and the Université de Sherbrooke
 - Co-chair of the United Way campaign
 - Member of the board of directors of the Raoul Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies of the University of Quebec at Montreal
 - Member of the board of directors of the Agence Québec Wallonie-Bruxelles pour la jeunesse

CONTINUED...

- Senator Saint-Germain holds a bachelor's degree in journalism and information from Laval University and an Ombuds certificate from Osgoode Hall Law School at York University
- She also studied in the international management master's program at the École nationale d'administration publique of the Université du Québec