

MS Legacy Giving Confidential Statement of Intent

Thank you so much for your commitment to creating a world free of MS. Through your gift, you join your legacy to the extraordinary research, community programs, and advocacy that are transforming what it means to live with MS – today, and in the years to come.

By choosing to let us know about your gift, you’re enabling the MS Society to better plan for the future. More importantly, it means we can personally thank you for your generosity! Rest assured that your name will never be published without your express consent, and you’re never under any obligation.
